Love Shines Through: Meet Beverly and Her Daughter Jill

Our client Beverly and her daughter Jill have a special place in our hearts. They find joy in every day – even when health limitations make life challenging.

In 1999 Beverly suffered a heart attack that deprived her brain of oxygen for several minutes. She was in a coma for 10 days. When she woke up she had a permanent brain injury causing multiple cognitive difficulties in focus, balance, concentration, and brain-body connection - especially to her legs. Prior to her heart attack, Beverly worked as a librarian in Catskill, NY.

Jill had a career in the Air Force with her husband, Ross. She retired to help her husband through cancer and, after he passed away, she moved in with her mom.

In 2022 Beverly began having Dementia episodes and her mobility further declined. But Jill and Beverly kept enjoying life - especially being outside in nature. They switched their outings to level surfaces where Beverly's walker and transport chair could move smoothly.

We are so glad to know Beverly and Jill – their love for each other shines through, even on the hard days when life is challenging.
